

Tim Doran
Construction Manager

Skills and Certifications

- Hazard Communication Certified
- Fall Protection Certified
- 10-hour OSHA Construction Safety and Health
- 30-hour OSHA Construction Safety and Health
- ACI Concrete Field Technician-Grade I
- Trained in Blue Print Reading and Design
- Microsoft Virtual Earth, Google Earth
- Microsoft Excel, Project, Word, Outlook, Power Point
- AIA Contract Documents Program

Tim Doran is a Construction Manager for Gundaker Commercial Group, Inc. (GCG), emphasizing in the management function of National Retail Development projects throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. With more than 10 years of experience within the Construction Industry, Tim brings a wealth of knowledge in field management, contract administration, permitting, design and coordination to each project.

Tim began his career as a carpenter in Southern Illinois building mid-sized residential projects throughout the state. During his career, Tim has built over 50 residential projects and managed construction of 30 commercial retail stores throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. He works closely with the dedicated Development team and coordinates with tenant, architects, engineers, government officials and contractors to from project establishment to the project turnover.

Tim holds an Associates Degree in Construction Management from John A. Logan Community College and a Bachelors Degree in Advance Technical Studies with a minor in Management from Southern Illinois University. Tim has been active in continuing his education completing numerous courses in safety, concrete, contracts, Fall Protection, Hazard communication, and various computer programs. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, camping and competing in competitive cook-offs.