Brad Eisel is an advisor with Grubb & Ellis|Gundaker Commercial, the Brokerage Division of Gundaker Commercial Group, Inc., specializing in industrial and office/warehouse properties in the St. Louis region and beyond. With more than five years of sales experience, he advises business leaders, entrepreneurs, and real estate investors on a variety of real estate issues, including landlord/seller representation, tenant/buyer representation, wealth management, and real estate investment. Brad focuses upon providing his clients with outstanding customer service and strategic solutions for all their commercial real estate needs.

As an entrepreneur himself, Brad has a thorough understanding of the risk/reward ratio owners are seeking to expand their growing businesses. He has first-hand knowledge of business operations and the tools needed to successfully integrate concepts into practical situations which allows him to provide clients with a unique perspective as they strive to elevate their business to the next level. Brad is an integral part of the team marketing Premier370, the Midwest's newest business park. With more than 4 million square feet of developable area and accommodating a full spectrum of real estate business solutions, he and his partners Jerry Crylen and John McDonald are creating the opportunities for the region's leading business park.

Brad is a member of the St. Louis Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors. A graduate of the University of Kansas, Brad has a Bachelors degree in Communication Studies, with an emphasis in Business. He is an active member of his community and volunteers with charitable organizations focusing upon mentoring and animal welfare.
